

Bluebird Hill Retreat Workshops Accommodations List

We are so glad you will be joining us at Bluebird Hill Retreat in Santa Fe, TN! This list of accommodations includes the towns of Leiper's Fork (about 20 minutes from Bluebird Hill), Franklin (about 30 minutes), Spring Hill (about 20 min), and Columbia (about 20 minutes). There are also many AirB&B's in the Santa Fe and surrounding area not listed here (Google 'santa fe tn vacation rental' and you'll find many interesting possibilities!).

We have arranged our list for those who want access to all the action and the sights (Social Butterfly) and for those who want some solitude (Lone Ranger). Those of you in the Lone Ranger camp will want to check if your host will stock your fridge for you or if you need to provide your own food.

We recommend that you make your accommodation plans right away. Whenever you are booking your stay during a workshop, you will want to check the cancellation policies before you book. If COVID has taught us nothing else, it has taught us that plans can change for any multitude of reasons! Knowing your options going in will give you good piece of mind and insure that there are no nasty surprises.

If you are staying in or near Leiper's Fork, a popular destination, there are a few dining options. If you want a more elevated dining experience you may wish to reserve seating ahead of time at the restaurant 1892. None of the Leiper's Fork restaurants have a cocktail menu, but you can grab a glass of wine or a beer at a few spots. There is also a wine tasting venue now! Casual attire is fine in any of the area dining establishments 'cuz that's how we roll in Tennessee!

If you are traveling solo and would like to hook up with others to share costs, Rachel will connect those students wishing to share accommodations. If you are traveling with another/others and would like to fill a house but need more people, we can connect you with those traveling solo who wish to share.

For your viewing pleasure, a virtual visit to Leiper's Fork, TN -
